

GII Elects New Board Chair

Ghana Integrity Initiative (GII), Ghana's foremost anti-corruption organization and the local chapter of Transparency International wishes to inform the general public that in keeping to good corporate governance has elected a new Board Chairperson.

The new Board Chairperson, Mrs. Elsie Bunyan is a Chartered Accountant with extensive experience in audit, financial management, project management and procurement. She has been working in the development field since 1999 and has audited many donor-funded projects.

GII wish to thank Mr. Kwame A. Gyasi, Former Board Chair and all retiring Board Members for their exemplary leadership and welcome the new Board Members with great expectation that the fight against corruption will witness astronomic progress during their time in office.
